Subject: CERCLA/EPCRA Ag Rule schedule

Gerain,

The reconsideration of the final rule relies to some extent on the completion of the National Air Emissions Monitoring Study development of emissions estimating methodologies (EEMs). The draft EEMs are currently under review by a panel put in place by the Science Advisory Board. We do not have a date yet for when the panel will complete their review and the EEMs will be in place.

In anticipation of being asked for a justification of why the CERCLA/EPCRA Ag Rule's schedule is moved out 4 months, what should I say?

Thanks.
